“ There’s something about him..as freshman in high school he would have his brother give me and my brother ride home in his IROC-Z. Peeling out of that parking lot was the coolest thing on the planet at the time. Rest in Paradise, Darrin

“ No words really, except many of us miss you so much. Your infectious smile, your laughter, your ability to make friends everywhere and anywhere. Your daughter is all you, and you will continue to be so incredibly proud of her as she is such an extension of you. You can now rest as you are an overachiever!! Look out for all of us, and I know I know, "one team one goal."

My love~ My Darrin

We were building a life together—sharing a home and planning our future—My heart is shattered.

You loved me fiercely and made me feel protected, respected, and deeply cared for.

We were truly happy, always together, laughing, smiling, and living life side by side.

I have lost my best friend and the love of my life.

The love we shared will remain with me forever.

Rest in eternal peace, until we meet again.

I love you ~ Christi

“ dear Hope, I am so sorry for the loss of your Dad. He was a kind man with an infectious smile. Even though I had not seen him for some time, I still remember how his eyes lit up when he saw you. He was so proud to be your Dad. Love you! Aunt Connie
