“ Anita, I haven't seen you since you left Texas. I am so sorry for your loss.. At least now David will be able to break 80. He has the lord as his caddy. At least I did have an opportunity to play at your place last fall. Had a great round with David.
Bless all

Anita and Family,

I have often thought of you and Dave over the years. I remember always looking you two up when I visited the Chicago area. Dave was a stand-up guy in grade school, high school, college, and beyond. Our hearts are with you in this difficult time.
