“ My husband, Jack, is a Vietnam veteran at the V. Home in West Lafayette and although his memory is failing he remembers sharing stories about their experiences in Vietnam. I especially miss David as he would always wave when I drove up and when I left if he was sitting outside the Veterans Home door at that time. I have to also be glad he is now at peace. I hope there will be lots of black olives for him in Heaven! I so enjoyed meeting you, Patti, and your mother, and visiting with her about her AL winter home. My most sincere thoughts and prayers are with you as he is laid to rest. His burial sounds like the perfect tribute to an outstanding individual.

“ I had the privilege of meeting David here at the Indiana Veterans' Home. When I would see him I would always give him a side hug and would get a peck on the cheek. The first time I was introduced to his wife, Patty, I could tell he loved her very much and was so proud to introduce me to his wife. Patty I am so sorry for your loss and may God hold you in his arms during your time of grief. David will be missed. RIP Dave.
