

Delbert H. Matz

February 20, 1940 - June 8, 2016

Delbert H. Matz, age 76, passed into eternal life on June 8, 2016, in Merrillville IN. He was born in Chicago on February 20, 1940. Delbert was preceded in death by his son- Michael Edward Matz; parents- Edward and Helen Matz; brothers- Howard (late Rose), Edward (Betty), Roland (Grace); infant sister; and nephew- Howard (Judy) Matz.

Delbert is survived by his loving wife of 56 years- Patricia; beloved daughter- Kathleen (Fred Noel); cherished granddaughter- Tiffany Noel (Robert Rieske); grandson of whom he was so proud- Colin; treasured great-grandson- Xavier Oliver; brother- Kenneth (Elaine), of Albuquerque, NM; and numerous nieces and nephews.

His special friends Teddy and Pearl will miss him greatly. Del was a good friend and neighbor to many. He loved to walk his dogs around the neighborhood and catch up on all the gossip. A born salesman for many years at Carson Pirie Scott, he never met a stranger. Funny, quirky, and caring were some of the many ways to describe him. He is missed by many already. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Harbor Lights Hospice, who took care of Delbert in his final days and made his transition into eternity as peaceful as possible.

“ *Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day,
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed and very dear.*

Although words can't really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in our thought and prayers.

Love Always,

Derric, Ashley, Gabriella, Cooper
