“ I will always love my sister, the Dee that I know and grew up with, the great times she and I shared as her three wonderful children were growing up, taking Danny fishing and golfing, buying Sherry that white coat that she wanted so bad, Mike when he was a baby getting him to go to sleep by kissing the soles of his feet, the Christmas's and Easters will always be some of the best moments of my life, as with all of my family I do love them all, always have and always will. Nothing is perfect in this life there is bumps and smooth sailing, but no matter what you have to remember to love, no matter what happens.

“ A real oops on the part of the paper omitting her sister Liz, and brothers Joe, Herb and Roger. Anyway we use to have a lot of fun as kids playing on the hillside and down by the river. My sympathy goes out to her sister and brothers.
