“ Being a friend of Michele's, I have known Denny for at least 30 years. In all that time I may have actually seen his face three or four times. His face was mostly hidden behind the hood of a car, cleaning the inside of a car, bent over checking the tires of a car, behind the newspaper reading NASCAR results or on a lawn mower. I do know he loved his family and worked hard so they could have a nice home and nice CARS. Rest in Peace Denny.....I hope there are cars in heaven.

My deepest sympathy to his wonderful wife Michele and his three beautiful daughters, Heather, Laura, and Val.
