“ You were the oldest friendship i had on this planet. I lived on 204 E Goldsboro St. Crown Point, IN. You were our paper boy when i was in 2nd grade. You would always ride by on your BMX -and usually a cast on one arm or the other...teeheee. We became friends. I went to a private school til 7th grade.... then went to Taft Jr. High 7th & 8th grade with you, and on to Crown Point High for 9th grade. You were the only friend i had when i started public school.... and you will never know how grateful i was to have you as a friend. you helped me thru so much. my home life was such a nightmare..... and you held it private, and never revealed my nightmare i tried every day so hard to hide. for this i am forever grateful my friend. from the bottom of my heart. when i moved to Oregon... i never saw you or anyone else again. so happy i got to find you on facebook and thank you for protecting me when i needed protection! i never forgot, and always in my heart needed to acknowledge you for that. and i got to. for this i find peace. my heart is saddened deeply for your family\'s loss. They now have the greatest guardian angel to watch over them. i miss you... always have... always will. thank you for being a part of my childhood. you were the only good person that fully knew my situation and cared. you are one of few positive memories from my childhood. that my friend no-one can ever take. nor or you replaceable. it was an honor to have known you and share the friendship we once shared. LOVE and RESPECT to you and yours! Sincerely, a sad friend that will never forget you, Anessa Connor###imported-begin###Anessa Holly Connor###imported-end###
