“ To the Daily family,

Although we didn't know Charles well, what other's said of him spoke volumes about the love and dedication to his faith and family, but especially his character. Our Lord has called home a man who will be told what all believers long for on their day- "Well done good and faithful servant".

Much Love,

Pete and Diana Bone

“ Sally, Susan, Drew and Family. The fond and loving years of happiness at all of the family gatherings, Church services, and most of all, when we all made cookies together, are great times that I will never ever forget! I wish you all prayers for our loss of such a wonderful man, husband, father, and brother in Christ Jesus. And it's comforting to know that he now sits next to our Lord and Savior.

I truly Love You All. David Chandler

“ Sincere condolences to Chuck's family. May he Rest In Peace Worked at the Gary Post Office many years under his leadership. A demanding man who earned the respect of his employees. Things changed a great deal once he retired. He will be missed by all that knew him. God Bless Chuck

“ We will always remember and appreciate Chuck's work in building Mission Garizim from scratch, the joy as he helped join together the corners of that original building still being used as a Training Center for African Bible teachers. It was hard work with the most basic of tools, but never a complaint or sigh from Chuck. We also appreciate his years of service on the ECM board and his leadership as chair. Chuck was a friend, an encourager, and a servant of the Lord. Hugs and blessings to Sallie and all the family.
