“ So many things that I could share so many things that Di showed what kind of a friend he was. I owe him my career in more ways than one. He was a rare individual whose word was golden and was the same man behind your back as he was to your face.

“ We are broken hearted by the passing of this Wonderful Man, Husband, Father, Grandfather, Son, Father-In-Love to our Son and Friend/Mentor to SO many. He Loved and Lived LIFE! It is SO difficult not to have been able to spend this time with our families to console and support each other due to the coronavirus. When this has all passed, we must ALL gather for a GREAT CELEBRATION OF LIFE as he celebrated Life and would have wanted ❤️ "D", Your legacy will Life On and you will never be forgotten ❤️ You did well with the time you were given here on this earth and loved by many. You Will Remain FOREVER in our Hearts, Thoughts and Prayers ❤️ Rest In Heavenly Peace in the arms of the Angels. Love and Miss You ❤️ Anna and Larry Woodham
