“ I am so sorry Dora has left us. I have so many sweet memories of her and George in Sunday School at Eastlake when Gorge taught the class. We had so many good discussions about God and Jesus. I know she is with them now. I will miss her. 😭

“ I have more memories then I can count. My heart has always been filled with so much love for her. That smile of hers could turn a sad day to a happy one. She loved the Lord so much & now she is with Him. We talked about our families & she loved hers so. I'll miss our talks & breakfasts. I love you dear Lady. Belinda

“ Dora was the smiling face of Lakes of the Four Seasons dispatchers. She was loved by so many residents and people she came in contact with on a daily basis. She always stood up for her girls, and we will miss her terribly. I looked forward to working with her every day. When she asked me to be her partner after her partner of more than 30 years retired, I felt honored. My first day with her she said "it's now the double D's on duty!" We looked at each other and laughed. She said maybe she shouldn't phrase it that way!
