“ *To the Madej family:
My name is Elise, I worked with your mom @ Nipsco in the mid 80's. Some time I filled in as the other time keeper when Terri Cuellar was off. Your mom was so kind and helpful to me! One memory was the Oak tree in your yard that just wouldn't shed it leaves in the fall. Think that irritated her. So sorry for you loss. She was a special person!*

“ My condolences to Louise's family. Louise is what many of her classmates called her and we had great fun at many slumber parties together. I always enjoyed her sassy sense of humor.

“ Dorothy will be missed by all. Leeanne and I grew up together like sisters. Our fathers knew each other for most of their lives. We lived at each others homes as young children and were treated like one of the family. Most vivid memories of Dorothy are getting yelled at because we would stay up all night long just laughing like hyena’s. Leeanne couldn’t come out to play until her chores were done, so I begged Dorothy to let me help her...and so She did 😊. Ed will also miss you Dorothy. He’s gonna miss his little talks with you as he cut your grass. May you rest in heavenly peace now. God’s blessings to the family 🙏

Love,
