“ Dear Aunt Margie... Where do I begin.... From you and Uncle Doug Babysitting for the Gulliver Children.. to watching Grandma Krahulec sewing Costumes in the middle of the night for Thornridge High School Play's. . and of course you and Uncle Doug were the Star's....and in the Shopper Newspaper with Pictures. . then there was the swimming parties at Uncle Doug's Mom and Dad's pool.. we also remember Christmas Eve's you both were wrapping presents for our Mom and Dad. . there were 6 of us. having the time of your lives..... and the presents were unbelievable .. . as time went on. . we also got to visit Uncle Doug at College . .Wow.. that was really nice. . next was the Wedding Planning . . Aunt Margie wanted to have a Christmas wedding. . her and Uncle Doug were again the Star's. . at Chuck Cavallini's in Midlothian. . everything was Beautiful.. Your Three Children came and they are the angels. .Special days came and left. .then George and I were Honored to be picked to be Anna Louis Godparents. . Uncle Doug and Aunt Margie had the best little parties ... and also had lots of fun at the Gulliver Parties. . Uncle Jay... that is what you both called my Dad, LOVED you both so much... so did our Mom.. your sister called you and Uncle Doug the Prince and Princess!!!! Memories will always be with me. . George remember's the fun times in your Gary Home. . We Love YOU Aunt Margie and I love to talk on the phone at night. . pls call me anytime. . You, Uncle Doug and family, prayed for George and I at a special time we needed you December 9.1979 and we will pray for you always.....Aunt Margie I am always thinking of you..and will come to you if you ever need me. . Love to you always Judy and George. .

“ Marge and family, please accept my deepest sympathy. I am saddened as I contemplate the death of a friend and fellow WWCA newsman. Although it has been years since our careers took us in different directions, I still think of Doug as a brother. Patty and I still talk enjoy remembering the good times we all shared back in those WWCA years. May you find comfort in warm memories.
