

Dr. K. James "Jim" Mc Caleb

June 12, 1932 - March 31, 2012

Dr. K. James "Jim" Mc Caleb, age 79, of Hebron, IN, formerly of Lakes of the Four Seasons, passed away on Saturday, March 31, 2012.

He was born in Ottawa, IL, a graduate of Illinois State University and received his Ph.D. from Michigan State University. Jim was a retired Professor of Behavioral Sciences of South Suburban College. He was instrumental in developing the degree completion program for Public Safety at Calumet College of St. Joseph.

Jim was preceded in death by his first wife, E. Ann McCaleb.

He is survived by wife, Pat Mc Caleb of Woodstock, IL, daughter, Julie Ann (James) Morris of Crown Point, IN; son, David James (Laurel A.) McCaleb of Chicago; 3 grandchildren, Kailey (Brad) Gernenz, Jason Morris, Grace Mc Caleb, and great grandson, Logan.

Funeral service will be held on Wednesday, April 4, 2012 at 11:00 am, DIRECTLY at St. Mary Catholic Church, 321 E. Joliet, Crown Point, IN. Friends may visit with the family on Tuesday, April 3, from 3 – 8 pm at Burns Funeral Home, 10101 Broadway, Crown Point, IN. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to LOFS Volunteer Fire Department or the Polycystic Kidney Foundation (PKD) 8330 Ward Parkway, Suite 510, Kansas City, MO, 64114-2000 www.burnsfuneral.com

Tribute Wall

“ Pat and Family

We were so sorry to hear of Jim\'s passing. We have so many good memories of Jim from ISNU, Blackfrairs and the get-together in later years. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##David and Nancy Bloomstrand##imported-end##

April 05, 2012 at 12:00 AM