

Edith L. Ward

September 11, 1919 - December 26, 2011

Edith Ward, age 92, of Crown Point, passed away on December 26, after a long, fulfilling life. She is survived by her daughter Martha Madden of Marco Island, FL and her son Richard Ward of Point Richmond, CA, and her grandson, Michael Ward of Crown Point, who was her loving care giver for 2 ½ years. She was preceded in death by Roger Ward, her husband of 50 years, and her son Michael who died in 1961. Edith is also survived by her many close and friends and family members.

Edith began her college career at age 44, finishing her master's degree at 55. She taught English in both and Portage and Merrillville schools and after retirement, taught English as a Second Language at the Crown Point Adult Learning Center where she was recognized for her work on December 28, 1999, at the age of 80. She firmly believed that "once a teacher, always a teacher". She also enjoyed singing in the group "Senior Sounds" that entertained in nursing homes and senior centers all over the area. In addition, she was a devoted Hospice volunteer. She was a long time member of St. John's United Church of Christ in Crown Point.

Friends and relatives are invited to meet with the family on Saturday, December 31 at the Burns Funeral Home, 10101 Broadway, Crown Point from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. with a memorial service following at 11:00 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Crown Point Adult Learning Center,

601 N. Grant St., Crown Point, IN 46307

Tribute Wall

“ Edith will always remain in our hearts and in our thoughts.##imported-begin##Dean and Toni Tucker##imported-end##

December 28, 2011 at 12:00 AM