Edna was born in Stevenson, Alabama and grew up partly in Tennessee and then moved to Harvey, Illinois. She had a hard life growing up. Edna was a waitress most of her life and worked at the L&G restaurant in downtown Harvey, IL. She was not very traditional when it came to being a mother or a grandma, but she loved us all in her own way, and we all have our own special memories that make her who she was. At one point in her life, she loved to bet on the horse races at Balmoral Park in Crete, IL. and had her favorite jockeys. She was a very good cook and a master at making her mother's biscuits and gravy. We all were raised on her fried chicken, fried potatoes, pinto beans, and her cornbread. Edna could always start trouble somewhere and with someone and would always have a funny story to tell. You could always catch her hiding food in her purse from her favorite buffet or hanging out at her favorite spot, the 24 hours Dunkin' Donuts in South Chicago Heights, IL. She will be greatly missed for sure!

“ I remember as a child that my Aunt Edna was always cracking a joke or something to make you laugh. She always seemed like a wild one.
