“ Long distance trips with Jim & Eleanor were so much fun. Living in Quincy, Illinois for 17 years gave Hank & I the opportunity to have Wednesday night dinners/ card games with them. Sometimes a little animosity about who should win. Many fun memories overall. We will miss you Eleanor.!

I will miss my Aunt Eleanor. Her and Uncle Him always attended family events and holidays when they lived in Quincy. She would make a fantastic strawberry dessert that she would bring to many functions. It took a little doing, but I got the recipe. I'll have to find that recipe and make it again. RIP.

*Lillian Dean
When I was young and still living at home Jim sometimes worked the evening shift. At that time we lived a few blocks away down the same street. I would walk to their house before dark. Eleanor and I would play scrabble until Jim got home.
An eternal dwelling place awaits you in heaven, Eleanor*
