“Elijah was like a brother to me and my sister. Him and max were always together. He would be at our house so much I was going to start charging rent 😭 he was at mostly every family event and we treated him as if he was family. I always looked at him as a brother and still do. Him and max knew each other for years and they had a bond no one could break. They spent there last moments together. And I know that is how they would've wanted it. They did everything together. Our hearts are broken not only for our loss but elijahs family also. I will always remember our memories and until we meet again lil bro 😭🙏 I remember how goofy Elijah was and he was a person u wanted around. My kids even looked at Elijah as their uncle and loved him so much. may you both Rest In Peace and we will get justice for you boys. Love u both! ❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏🙏🙏😭😭😭😭😭😭 god give us the strength to get through these trials and hardships we need u more now then ever.

“My memory of Elijah is him calling me Marypoo. He thought it was funny, Elijah was at my home in Country club hills several times, he went to our family picnic once and he was always at Peyton's birthday parties. I loved him like he was one of my grandchildren and will miss his shenanigans.
