“ I was a young girl the last time I saw Aunt Elsie, but she lives in my memory and always will. I didn't talk to her on the phone enough, but when we did get together on the phone it was a true gab fest. I would always delight in her energy and her outlooks on things. She and I could talk about my dad, that was always very special too, she was the last of his direct line that actually had memories of him. After our phone calls I would be delighted and swear I was going to call her once a month, but I never did. Time just flies by so quickly many important things get left undone. For many many years I have said I hope it's her blood flowing in my veins, after our gab fests I would be sure it was. I love that special lady.

“ Linda and the entire family,
I am truly sorry for your loss, it is hard in any season to lose a parent, but especially during Christmas time. I know just what you are going through, and I am here for you for anything, I love you a lot Lin.
love Les, (your little sis )
