“ Mt deepest sympathy to the Pelzel family. Tiny or Ampa as my kids would call him will be truly missed. When I moved in next door to him and his family they made me part of their family. Heaven has gained a great man but I know that he will be watching over all of us and someday we will be together again. I love you Ampa.

“ I have known Tiny for almost my entire life. From my earliest memories he has been there providing a positive influence on my life as he has for so many others. He is a great man and will be missed dearly.
