“ *Dear Eva,
I remember when you moved to Indiana. We were teenagers. Your sister, Fifi, came first with Aunt Cruz and we quickly became fast friends. It was so nice to have you and your whole family nearby. I remember you as a quiet and unassuming woman. As I read all the nice thing being said about you, I can see that you continued to live your life the same way - loving God and your family. I regret not getting in touch with you sooner. My daughter and I were just making plans to contact you last Tuesday. Our conversation will have to be in the next life.
Til we meet again. Love Cruz.*

“ Tia, you laid a foundation on which deep affection, admiration, and faith are built. A woman of God first, a put your family second, and a faithful friend had been your dedicated mission on earth. The evidence: your first embrace with The Lord this past Tuesday night, the daughter, wife, tia, mother, grand, great, and great-great grandmother you are/were, and the hundreds of people you touched with true friendship. You were and will always be a wonderful blessing to each of our lives. Although we will miss you, we thank The Lord for bringing you into his presence and glory. It is after all, your prize, your crown, and your gift for running the race with determination, perseverance, and hard work. THANK YOU, from me and my family (Cami too), for the many talks, laughs, and memories we had together. Till we meet again in heaven,

Your loving grand and great nieces Leticia and Lucinda, your great-great nephew Cole (papas), and adopted grand niece, Cami.
