“ Mrs. Rodriguez always had a smile on her face. And a joke ready for me. She loved laughing, usually at my expense. She truly will be missed. My thoughts and prayers to her family....Much Love, Julietta Hensgen and Family

“ With sincere sympathy. I never called her by her first name out of respect. It was always Dear or Sweetie. I remember driving her to see her boys and their families especially her grandchildren, as if it were yesterday. She loved them all. Rest In Peace Sweetie. With love , Oscar or as she used to call me...Hunny

Eva was a person who enjoyed life. She loved walks with her Dad on Sundays, when they would stop and have ice cream—just the two of them. Her aunt traveled a lot and often took Eva and her mom with her. She was passionate about dancing (her daughter is nicknamed “Chacha”), and she regularly went dancing with her sisters. In fact, that is where she met the love of her life, who eventually became her husband. Las Vegas was her favorite place to go, and she went often. She was always ready to go out to lunch, dinner, shopping, out for a drive, whatever. She was ready for the adventure. She loved to visit her sons in Texas and Arizona (she could sneak over to Las Vegas, too). She laughed and cracked jokes you would not have expected. Ice cream remained a special treat all along. But, later in life, pain became a constant companion. God decided it was time for her and her sisters and parents to be together again. She is greatly missed, but left many smiles for those who miss her. God bless, and i’m guessing the angels are dancing a little more now.
