

Fernando Menendez

October 16, 1959 - November 8, 2022

Fernando Menendez, age 63, of Valparaiso, IN passed away on Tuesday, November 8, 2022. He was a graduate of Fernando Suria Chavez High School in Barceloneta, Puerto Rico, with a three year electrical technical degree. Fernando had a fulfilling career, holding various trade positions and team leader positions for the electric shop at U.S. Steel Corp. in Gary. He was a loving father, grandfather, husband and brother. He will be greatly missed. Fernando loved spending time with family and friends. He put others first with his gentle nature and kind heart. Fernando enjoyed fishing, golf and flying single engine planes. He loved to cook and entertain with family and friends. Fernando loved nature, the rain, sunrise and sunset. He gave thanks in a loud voice every morning for all his blessings. Fernando loved life and was planning and looking forward to retirement, but the Lord had other plans. Until we meet again Fernando, may the Lord embrace you in His arms.

Fernando was preceded in death by his father-Fernando Menendez. He is survived by his wife of 45 years-M. Virginia Menendez; daughters-Christy R. (Shane) Farney, Yvette L. (Robert) Gibson; grandchildren-Tayler Farney, Tyler (Holly) Farney, Stella and Farah Gibson; great grandson-Atticus L. Farney; mother-Luz Zoraida Maisonet; sister- Aida Luz Menendez; brother-Jesus M. Menendez.

“ Virginia,
You and Fernando are two of the kindest most selfless people we have ever had the privilege to call friends. You have poured unconditional love into our lives. His love for you, and yours for him, is a model others dream of. We will miss his hellos, his laughter, his loud beautiful voice, his sincere interest in our lives and his willingness to shares his with us. We will never forget Fernando and will keep his memory alive in our hearts forever. Love always, Mike, Maria, and Ella
