I only knew Flossie through my friend Wilma Kotcamp and met her at church a long time ago at a lady's meeting! The lady's were coming that day to a study ad were to come as they would have fir school as a young girl and bring their lunch they would have had back then! Flossie was in her 90's then! I was greeting the "children" as the my enter school! Here cane Flossie bare gout snd carrying a brown bag lunch! I was to welcome them and take her lunch! So o asked if I could put her lunch up for her and what would she be having for linch! She smiled big and said yes Mam and I have a biscuit and sausage to eat! She was having a great time pretending to be a young girl coming to school! She had such a sweet smile and barefoot! I never forgot! Wilma Kotcamp was the teacher and sine I had cane from Southern IL she had me be the greater that day! I saw Flossie a few times after that and she was always so sweet to talk to! I sent her a birthday card on her 100th and 102nd birthday as Martha sent me her address! She's singing and praising God but will always be on your hearts and if those friends who knew snd lived her!
