“ My husband Marty and I met Frank and Peggy in Michigan City where we were in the same condo community near the Marina and Washington Park. We became good friends and remained so for many years and enjoyed many good times together. When Marty had to begin living in an assisted living facility, Frank and Peggy were frequent visitors and Frank would come to take Marty out for a haircut and hotdogs. This was typical of Frank's kindness and good nature. He was devoted to Peggy and Gina and Mike and grandson, Paul who brought much joy to his life. Hope that all the good memories the family has of Frank will be a comfort to them.
