“ Duffy\'s: I know these next few days will be tough, but I also know what a strong bond you all have. May God hold you up in this trying time. Frank always had a crooked little smile and a gleam in his very blue eyes...he always had a story to tell...some we didn't want to hear! I love you guys! Give each other lots of hugs from us. We'll be praying for you all.

Love,

“ Dear Marilyn, Cindy, Danny, Suzy, Scott, Angie and families. I am truly sorry to hear about Franks passing, he truly is in a better place, where pain and suffering do not exist. I love you all and I cherish the memories that we have shared throughout our lives. The Amusement Park with the Rat Trap, Lake Michigan, all of the Holidays that we spent together, the summer vacation, the Mihalecs pool, hitting golf balls at Grandma Duffys farm and just hanging out. We all have memories that we cherish of times spent together. What I wouldn't give to be back in the upstairs window at Grandma Duffys waiting to see your guys' station wagon coming up over the hill. We have had good times, bad times and we have had each other through it all. I miss you all so much. May God Bless each and every one of you. I am unable to come to the memorial, I will however be there in spirit. Love your Niece an cousin, Sarah C. Duffy##imported-begin##Sarah Duffy##imported-end##
