

Frank "Jim" J. Wolff

October 3, 1953 - July 3, 2024

Frank James Wolff, age 70, known as "Jim" to many, passed away July 3, 2024. He lived a quiet life and is described by most as one of the nicest guys they ever met. He was involved in the auto industry for over 50 years and loved his job in high-end automotive sales and management. Jim won numerous sales awards of achievement, was the president of one company, and was a mentor to others in his industry. Jim was an avid sports fan, particularly of the Chicago Cubs and the Chicago Bears. He enjoyed good food and loved MGD beer. He was known to rave about the good food he ate, particularly when he twice a year visited his sister and brother and other family in Atlanta, Georgia.

Jim attended Gale School in Chicago Illinois and Solon Robinson School, Taft Middle School & Crown Point High ... all located in Crown Point, Indiana. He is a graduate of Chesterton High School in Chesterton, Indiana.

Survivors include Cheryl and Barry Smith (sister and brother-in-law) ; Karl Wolff (brother); Amber & Corey Youngblood (niece and nephew-in-law) and their children Brittney & Sebastian Adrianzen (great niece and great nephew-in-law) and their child, Sterling Adrianzen, age 15 months & Cameron Youngblood (great nephew) who all live in the Atlanta area. Jim is also survived by 6 first cousins from the Indianapolis Indiana area including Ken Noland, Terry Noland, Rick Noland, Dick Noland and Dan Noland along with their spouses and extended families and cousin Connie Fiorito and her husband who reside in California. He had many friends and long-term customers, often extending from one generation to the next.

Jim was predeceased in death by his parents, Betty and Roger Wolff and his nephew, Gavin Smith.

A private memorial ceremony and celebration will be held by the immediate family at a future date. Jim will be deeply missed by his family and friends.

If you would like to honor Jim's memory in some way, kindly make a donation in his name to the American Cancer Society at donate.cancer.org or by calling 1-800-227-2345. His family invite you to post stories, photos and comments about Jim on this website, <https://everloved.com/life-of/frank-wolff/obituary/>.
