

Fred D. "Cowboy" Myers

January 10, 1974 - June 17, 2024

Fred "Cowboy" Myers -On June 17, 2024, as he so often said, God's gift to woman kind was called home to Glory. Fred D. Myers, from Wheeler, Indiana, born January 10, 1974, youngest son and preceded in death by his parents Martha R. and James E. Myers Sr.

As a young man Fred grew up catching frogs and riding dirt bikes on the back roads, between train tracks and ditches. He grew up hard, but he grew up right, chasing Indiana girls on those Indiana nights.

He loved fast cars, fast bikes and fast skirts, never met one he wouldn't slap. Always quick with a dirty joke, loved him some Bacardi or So Co and BIG trucks.

To know Fred, you loved him or hated him, your choice. BUT if he loved you, it was hard and with a heart the size of an 18-wheeler. And if you knew him, you knew not to find his bad side. He lived Cowboy hard, red, white and blue, thru and true. A Rebel child down to his worn-out boots.

As a truck driver, he saw almost every square mile of this country he loved. He shared many hobbies like fishing, hunting or turning wrenches with his big brother. And maybe his favorite was terrorizing his nieces and nephews while sharing his life's stories.

He felt at home, on the road and at his best behind the Big Wheeler. Though even when far from his roots, he always came home to Momma, his boys, and family. He will be greatly and deeply missed by friends and family far and near. Fred leaves behind 3 beautiful sons; James D., Hunter, and Johnny Myers, 1 brother; James E. Myers Jr., 3 sisters; Katura Thompson, Jennifer Thompson, Katherine and William Ellis. He was damn proud of his 5 nephews; Anthony Webster (Myers), Nikolaus Nederman, Aidan Myers, William and Michael Ellis as well as his overly protected nieces; Jessica Ellis and Madison Myers.

In lieu of a funeral service the family is planning a celebration of his life to be announced via his Facebook page in the near future. Burns Funeral Home & Crematory, Hobart, Indiana entrusted with arrangements.

In famous last word fashion:

“Drive Fast and Swerve Brother”

Until I see you on the other side.

“ I was shocked to hear that Fred had passed. My condolences to his family and friends. I don't know who wrote this passage about Fred, but it is spot on!

I was a neighbor and a friend of Fred's a long time ago. We had some great conversations, shared a few drinks, and the occasional ice cream. My first memory of him was he and Sonny racing RC cars up and down the street. I always felt safe and looked after when they were around. Rest in peace.
