February 22, 1949 - February 7, 2022

Garry D. Borg, age 72, of Hobart, passed away February 7, 2022, after a brave battle with cancer. Garry was a proud Vietnam veteran with his service as a Navy Seabee. He had many childhood and Vietnam buddies he stayed in contact with throughout the years. His dearest friend was Charles “Chuck” Watson. There were so many stories that I heard from Garry through the years.

He was preceded in death by his parents-David “Bud” and Pearl Borg; brother-Brian Borg. Garry will be deeply and sadly missed by his wife-Deborah; daughter-Lisa Borg; mother-in-law-Joann Pavy; brother-in-law-Jim (Mary) Pavy; stepsons-Ray Hopper, James (Rachael) Hopper, Mike (Katy) Richter; grandbabies-Emily and Ben Richter, Leona Hopper; cousins-Paul and Tammy Borg, Diane Birky and Douglas Zaku.

Per Garry’s wishes, there will be no services and his cremains will remain with his wife. There will be a celebration of Garry’s life at a later date, which will be updated on the Burns Funeral Home website. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Garry’s wife, Deborah Borg, through Burns Funeral Home, 701 East 7th Street, Hobart, IN 46342.
