“ I met Gayle in 1942. She was my best friend. She taught me how to ride a bike, climb a tree, and how to jump from 2 story window into a sandbox! She walked me to my first day of school. I loved her.

“ Gayle was my neighbor. I did small jobs for her off an on over the years. When I first met Gayle I could tell she was educated and well informed on current events. I was very impressed with her. She had a list of things she wanted me to do this spring. She always enjoyed the tomatoes from my garden. I will miss her!
