

George E. Ewing

May 6, 1939 - April 21, 2023

George Ewing, 83, loving husband of Shirley Ewing, died on Friday, April 21, 2023. He was born to parents Anna and Lee in Hobart, Indiana on May 6th, 1939. He was a member of St. Michael Catholic Church in Schererville, IN and St Columbkille Catholic Church in Ft. Myers, FL. George served his country and was honorably discharged from the Army rank SP4. George spent his life working hard in places such as The Village Pump, Gumps, Innsbrook CC and The Sanctuary CC, so that he could fully enjoy the time spent with family and friends.

George was a dedicated father to his two sons Michael and Christopher. George was always happiest when with family and friends, enjoying home cookouts around campfires in the backyard and watching Chicago sports (even the Sox if no one else was playing). May he enjoy Mom's homemade tomato bread, fried green tomatoes and bread and butter pickles for eternity. And, perhaps even the occasional ice cold MGD next to the fire.

George was preceded in death by his loving wife of 52 years, Shirley I. Ewing; his parents- Anna and Lee Ewing; brothers: Bob and Lee Ewing; sister- Elizabeth O'Brien (nee Ewing) and beloved pets, Tiger and Rags. George is survived by his loving sons: Michael (Shelly) Ewing and Christopher Ewing; grandchildren: Emma, Karisa, Nico, and Sophia; sister- Mary Ann Cammarata (Nee Ewing); numerous nieces and nephews; and the still beloved fur-baby

“ My late husband Larry Bennett and I we did his yardwork in Tropicana for many years, his beautiful wife Shirley and I would always stop by one another house and let our dogs play. Later after Shirley passed away and my husband,I would see George and his beloved tiger and then Teddy walking with beloved dogs araround Tropcana and sitting on the beach and talking about our spouses have much we missed them. I will always remember George and Shirley and what wonderful people Thay were. I am sure George and my Larry are talking up a storm and remembering all the good times we all had together in Tropicana. Rest in peace my friend.
