She was loved by many nieces & nephews as well as great nieces & nephews. Gloria was a proud mother, grandmother, and great grandmother.

Gloria graduated from Bremen High School in 1955. She was the only one out of her siblings to graduate from high school. Gloria got married to her childhood friend, Sonny, and raised a beautiful family. She worked at Formos Plastic for a time, and later worked for Nabisco. Gloria worked for Nabisco from about 1978 – 2003 until her retirement. In 1980 she moved with her husband, Tom from Posen, IL to The Lakes of the Four Seasons in Winfield Township. Gloria was a fan of the Chicago Cubs and the Green Bay Packers *gag*. Gloria enjoyed watching rom-coms, comedies, and especially Steven Seagal movies. Oh, how she loved to laugh. Her favorite thing was to spend time with her grandchildren until they were replaced by the great grandbabies. One of Gloria's favorite things to do with her grandkids was to mess with them by playing a practical joke, saying something outrageous in public to make her grandkids feel uncomfortable or react loudly. She was so full of mischief and joy.

Gloria was also known as China Wina (a childhood nickname), and Muga as given by her first great grandson, Lucas. He combined the words mother and grandma to make 'Muga.' It was adopted immediately! She even put it on her license plate.

“ Gloria was one of my most favorite "bingo" friends. We shared many talks about "rocks", " dream catchers" and my "love" for hummingbirds." She made me the most beautiful hummingbird blanket , out of the kindness of her heart! I will truly "miss" her. Rest in "peace" in dream catcher heaven. Doreen
