“ I’m going through old pictures on my iPhone and noticed that, while taking pictures with some veterans during the 2019 D-Day anniversary observance, I caught Mr. Johnson’s name badge and hometown in the photo. That may be why I asked him to take a picture with me that day almost six years ago — we share a last name. He was such a pleasant gentleman. I just googled him and found this obituary. God bless Mr. Johnson and his loved ones. -

“ So sorry to learn of Harold’s passing. We met several years in florida and was so interested in his WW2 service and the incredible life he lived. We even flew on a B17 bomber together! Sad to see hero’s like him go. Rest in peace Harold.

“ We had the pleasure of having lunch with Mr. Johnson last Veteran's Day at Wheeler Middle School. So enjoyed visiting with him and hearing his stories. He always looked great in his uniform and was hoping to greet him at the luncheon this year. He was truly missed. Thank you for your service Mr. Johnson. George and Pam Mandich
