“ My brother-in-law Harvey Hollifield was a very competitive person always striving to have the best do the best and be the best. A few days before his departure from the world he heard the best news ever the best offer The best opportunity for fame and fortune. A good man shared with Harvey the gift that could be his if he would just believe the good news to be true yes Harvey you did need a savior like all the rest of us. so Harvey became the best he always needed to be. A believer of Jesus the Christ who died In his stead to pay Harvey's sin debt. so now a child of the king of all the earth and Harvey's knee bowed on the streets of gold before the throne. welcome Harvey to your new home where all your born-again family were waiting for your salvation. sent by your favorite sister-in-law Betty Hollifield wife of your brother Bob

“ My Uncle was a wonderful strong minded man. He came so far in life. He once told me how him and his brother, Bob would lay in bed when they were little and talk about all the things they wanted to have in life, when he was losing his brother Bob they talk about it and how they had work to get all they ever wanted. The brothers and sister were never jealous of one another they were all so proud of each other and I don't think there was anything that they would not do for each other. My Uncle Harvey was always there for my dad and My dad was so proud of his brother. I made sure that when I go to Indiana that my sister and I would go visit him. I loved this man so much,
