“ Thank you for all of your kind comments. Thank you to all those that attended her services and also to those who couldn't attend but prayed for all of us. Our mother was a beautiful person inside and out. Before she passed, her message was, “Live a happy life.” Let's all take that to heart. Spread love and kindness. She did that every day of her life. Thanks again, Kindest Regards, The Family of Helen Albrecht

“ Grandma Helen,
We will always cherish our memories with you, God gained an angel and we will forever miss you. You were so very generous, caring, vivacious, and the kids just loved seeing you each time we visited! You had such a contagious personality, and so very down to earth! “She sings a song of hope and cheer, there's no more pain, no fear. You'll see her in the clouds above, hear her whisper words of love!” Love you Grandma Helen! Love The Wynn Family and the Austin Family ❤️❤️

“ *Danny, Chucko, Lisa, Valeria and Carrie,
It is with great sorrow that I write this. I have many fond memories of Mrs. Albrecht. I remember her laugh, her smile and the long talks we had in the mill. She was always there for us in good times and bad. She will be greatly missed. She raised five great kids. She is with the angels in heaven now looking over all of us. My heart and soul go out to everyone in the family.
Love you all,
Joey and Chris Hudock*
