

Herbert S. Lasser

August 17, 1928 - March 17, 2010

Herbert S. Lasser "He Did it HIS Way!" (Insert STAR of David)

Herb Lasser, age 81, died Wednesday March 17th at 9:00 a.m. Beloved husband of Jo for 50 years and loving father of David (Rona) Lasser and Laura E. Lasser-Stein. Beloved grandfather of Mallory and Kate Lasser and Sam Stein. Preceded in death by his parents Abe and Ella Lasser of Gary Indiana; brother Leonard Lasser, Dolly (Morton) Koch, Millie (Mickey) Weiss. Proud uncle of; Phyliss Koch Sheras, Janice Koch Libbin, Roz Wolff, Debbie Gordon, Fred and Don Weiss and patriarch to Jo's family. Member of Temple Israel, 1946 grad.of Horace Mann, Valparaiso University, JD Law, 1953. Ever outspoken and living life to its fullest, raised his family at, Lakes of the Four Seasons, where he relished golf and boating. Practiced law for nearly 60 years, in NW Indiana and Chicago. He and his family enjoyed Chicago's culture and sports; Symphony, Opera, LPZoo, University Club, museums, Cubs, Sox, Bulls, and Bears. Herb's "Joi de Vie" was evidenced in his toys, world travel, golf, snooker, gin and casinos. Herb lived his final 14 years joyously at Sand Creek, Chesterton, IN. Herb was the most optimistic man in the world. At 81 he began his final business endeavor, Rimsmith Tool to compensate for his penchant for bad parking, and hitting potholes. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to a "Living Memorial Garden" at Sand Creek, 219-395-5200 or debbie.owens@sandcreek.com . A Public Memorial Service will be held on Sunday March 21 at 3:00 p.m. at Sand Creek Country Club in Chesterton, IN.www.sandcreek.com/cc/pages/about/directions.htm .

“ Jo and family,

Cliff spoke of the Las Vegas trip in December with such joy! And of course the wonderful "Herb Stories".

He will be remembered for his wonderful laughter, fun stories and enthusiasm for life!!

Jo, know that Cliff and I are thinking of you. You have a wonderful family who will be at your side and we wish you comfort in your family.
