“ My condolences to his family and friends. I was his bus driver for a year in high school. Hunter had a smile that could light up a room, and he was always laughing. No parent should ever have to lose their child. I am so sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to you. You're all in my thoughts.

“ I loved Hunter like a brother. Me, my sister, Sophie and Hunter all went to the YMCA together when we were younger, so our friendship started there. We all were in elementary school at the time. Hunter and I grew up to have a closer bond as we were only a year apart in age. For the entirety of our friendship we would run around telling everyone we were brother and sister, and everyone believed it! Some people even thought we were twins at times! I was one grade ahead of Hunter, so we never had any classes together as we got older, but we always would make it a point to say hi as we passed each other in the halls, would give each other the biggest hugs, and we even sat together at lunch a handful of times. As time went on, we did grow a part. I graduated and moved away, and we lost touch. We always told each other happy birthday. I’ve always been good about remembering birthdays and Hunters was one I never forgot after learning it was January 4th. I remember learning that one day as we sat together on the bus right to the ymca. Again, we must have only been like 8 years old at the time. But I always remembered that.. I mean, how could I forget my “brothers” birthday? Anyway, we grew apart as the years went on. I wish I would have made a better effort of keeping in touch as we got older. I feel like I lost a sibling and I give my greatest condolences and love to the family. I loved Hunter so much. Anyone who reads this, hug your friends tight and tell them you love them. You never know when the last time will be. I will miss Hunter everyday of my life. Gone way too soon... ❤️
