“ Nean, You were truly the best grandma anyone could hope to have and I was blessed to have you as my grandma and great-grandma to my daughter, Brianna. Words cannot express how much we love you and will miss you every single day until we see you again in Heaven. Thank you for all of the wonderful things you have done for us over the years and for hanging on to help me with the sudden loss of my husband, Chris. He was trying to help me prepare for your passing and instead you helped comfort me after his. I love you so very much! I will mourn you until I join you!

*Much Love Always,
Stephanie*

“ Sharon, Karen, and Danny, I was so sorry to hear about your Mother passing away. I had only met her briefly but she was so kind to me. May the Holy Spirit bring you comfort and give you strength.

“ I knew Jean and her family for 47 years. It was difficult to see her health decline these past several years, because she was always so vibrant and active. One of her greatest joys was working in her & Danny's gardens. Whenever I see a lovingly tended garden, I will remember Jean.

*Rest in peace, dear friend.
