

Irvin LeRoy Marler

April 12, 1932 - August 8, 2016

Irvin “Roy” Marler went to be with the Lord on August 8th, 2016 while at his home in Griffith, Indiana. He was born in Doniphan, MO on April 12, 1932. He grew up in western, KY and graduated Greenville High School , class of 1950 and remained in close friendship with all classmates. Roy was retired from the Air Force and the Social Security Administration. He loved gospel and country music, as well and his service to the military and God. These were his proudest things to talk about. Roy was a member of Griffith Baptist and a former member of Southern Heights Baptist Church in Lexington, KY for many years where he served as a Sunday school teacher, choir member, and deacon. He was a lifetime member of the Tac Tankers Association and enjoyed traveling with the word “go.” He is survived by his wife- Wilodean Wynn Marler; daughters-Sandy (Dave) Holzwarth of Georgetown, KY and Susie (Steve) Heil of Bardstown, KY; son- David (Margaret) Marler of Lexington, KY; seven grandchildren- Ashley, Melissa, David Jr., Austin, Kristen, Allen, Megan, and nine great grandchildren. Also survived by his sisters-Carol (James) Groves, Marilyn Spurlin, and brothers- John (Carol) Marler of Kentucky, and Robert (Christiane) Marler of Santa Fe, New Mexico. In addition to his immediate family, Roy is also survived by his step-children and step-grandchildren, Daniel, Tricia, Austin, and Ellen Wynn, and Paula, David, and Kelsey Barrick. He was preceded in death by his parents- Irvin and Mary Marler; first wife- Anna Cook Marler, and brother- Ray Marler. Friends may visit with Roy’s family on Thursday, August 11, 2016 from 10:30 -12:30

“ When i first started going to Southern Heights Baptist Church in Lexington Ky In1975 Roy was my first Sunday School Teacher. Then I begin singing in the choir and i set in front of him and Les Cherry both big bass voices. over the years i got too know Roys family David and his family and Sandy. didn't know Susie very well, mostly just as Sandys twin. Roy was a very fine man and a gentleman, hard to find many like him this day was and excellent Bible teacher and choir When i think of Roy and the choir I always remembering him singing "Why Me Lord with the choir doing back-up. He will be missed but he is now singing in his heavenly Home
