“ Our sympathy to Izzie's family - we shared in their lives in St. Luke's Grade School (with Jim), and Emerson High (with both Jim and Izzie). My younger sister, Mary Carol (Rupp) Hurst, has fond memories of classmate Sarah Flynn in St. Luke's. Our friend in Hollywood, Nick Frangakis (Franke), was our classmate and a good friend of Anne Flynn many years ago. We were disappointed in being prevented from attending the funeral due to the snowstorm.

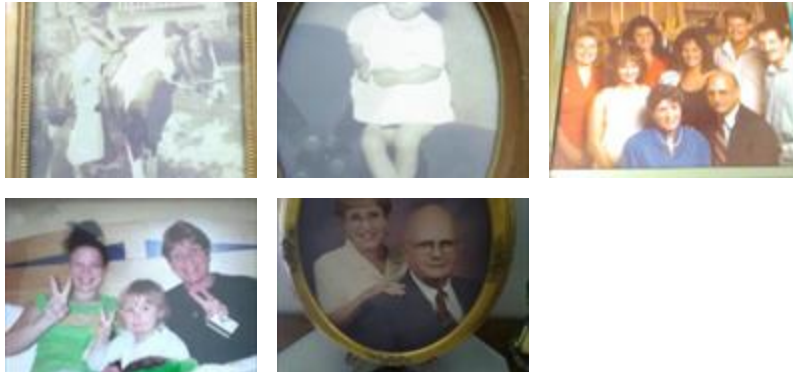

May Izzie, Jim and Anne RIP in the love and care of God the Father, Jesus His Son and the Holy Spirit.

Classmates James W. Rupp and Marge E. (Sheehy) Ulman, and Nick Frangakis, Emerson Class of 1950.

“ Isabel, to whom I called Mom for many years was an outstanding, most febanure woman I've ever met in my 63 years on this Earth. Although there is much sorrow and many lasting memories, I have a great comfort knowing she is residing in heaven with her beloved husband and her son's. God bless the ones in mourning she left behind they took great care to give her comfort in her final years. Remember always the great, true love she gave each of you Blessings to those that all mourn her loss. She can never be related, it is with great honor of her love she gave so FREELY, a true angel.

“ My very dear friend is now out of all pain or confusion . She was a wonderful friend for 50 years tho many miles separated us at times . There were times we were each other's strength, at the loss of our boys , an understanding few could understand . At the weddings of our girls , a fun & memorable time . We loved each other as sisters do . You were very lucky to be her children , you were her reason for living . We will all miss her sweet smile . May you have comfort at this difficult time for each of you . I will always love you girls .
