

James A. White

March 14, 1933 - February 21, 2008

James Alonzo White, passed away peacefully at the University of Chicago Hospital with his children at his side, on February 21, 2008. He was greeted in heaven by his wife and love of his life, Linda (Jan. 29, 1999).

Jim, also known as "Chief" purchased his first motorcycle at the young age of 73. His first roadtrip was to his birthplace, Knox, IN, where he entered the world on March 14, 1933.

Jim was retired from LTV Steel where he worked for 25 years as a master electrician. Not yet ready for retirement, Jim was employed by Geneva Realty until he felt it was time to start enjoying life on his own terms and desiring to be with his family full time.

His 9 grandchildren, Amanda and Nicole, Kayla, Erin and Alex, Chase and Ciara, and Brandon and Justin and two great-grandchildren, Ella and Elyssa were cherished blessings. He traveled to Arizona often to visit daughters Teri Greiner of Scottsdale and Connie (Rex) Mann of Mesa. He spent leisure time with daughter Sandra White of New Buffalo, MI, son James (Diana) White of Lake Villa, IL and youngest daughter Janet Kissee whom he lived and shared his life with, in Crown Point.

There have been many happy memories. He traveled extensively with his soulmate, Linda, to Egypt, Israel, Mexico, the Carribean and places in between. His interests were many and we could count on Dad, Pops, Pappy, Papa, to have the answers to all questions. He was a History Channel buff, a Bears fan and he got to heaven with a winning lottery ticket in his pocket! Jim had served in the Army and was a member of the American Legion. Forever you will be loved. Forever you will be missed.
