“ Dear Karen, we were so sorry to learn of the passing of your precious husband.
It has been our pleasure to know you both. You have been a wonderful testament to others as you have cared for your dear husband. May God bless you in the days to come.
Our love and prayers are with you.

“ Jim and Karen were my next-door neighbors for 16 years when we lived in Crete. No one could have a better neighbor and friend. Snow blow the drive, St. James of the Snow was there. Kill a snake in my basement, he was "on it." He could and would cheerfully help. Hope he's enjoying a well deserved rest in heaven with his feet up among other special Saints like him. My deepest sympathy and love to you Karen. God will richly reward you for your loving and constant care. Love and Prayers, Chris
