“ As a young woman married to Jim's oldest brother Ed, he was a big help to me. I had 3 little girls each 1 year apart and Jim's mom told him to come and get my laundry so she could help with washing and ironing. Jim was just a young man of 19 and he did as his mom asked. When Ed and I bought our house in West Mifflin, he was there helping with the landscaping. Rest in peace Jim. You did a great job while with us. You wer one of a kind. Love always Mel.
