“ I would like to offer my condolences to Fred and the rest of the Humburg Family. I knew Jim from St. Johns School. I was a classmate from third grade through the seventh. One funny thing that I remember was the time Jim had invited me to his Birthday Party. It might have been the third grade. At that time I lived a few miles out of town. I called Jim and told him that I could not come to his party because I did not have a ride. He said "that's OK I will pick you up". When I looked out my front door, Jim had sent the Hearse from the Funeral Home to pick me up. I did not have to ride in the back. I later moved just down the street frm Jim.and spent time at the Humburg Home. RIP Jim. Tom Steinborn

“ I was fortunate to have been good friends with Jim the last 35 years. One of my fondest memories is from several years ago when I and a group of friends accompanied Jim to the first Notre Dame football game he ever attended personally. Attached are a few pictures which were taken with his own camera from that event. I am terribly sorry I was not able to attend the funeral today. Rest in peace, Jim. You will be missed but never forgotten!

“ At 13, I was in a band with Jim. We were radio buds. Jim was one of the best two-way radio operators I ever knew. There were things I got to do back in the day if it was not for Jimmy, would have never happened. You were a big part of my life Jim, a best friend. I will never forget and always be grateful. In my thoughts and my heart, Rest in peace Jimmy...

“ I went to school with Jim at St Johns for many years we were in the Boy Scouts together. I saw Jim two years ago and I was so happy to see him. With all his problems he had a heart of gold and would help anyone in need if he could. We would talk often and I would help him out when he needed it. He never would ask I would volunteer because he was a good soul. I see all the many kind and positive words from so many people that he touched in his life if when your time comes you have many wonderful friends and family you are blessed and your life was full and memorable. He will be in my heart and prayers always and I look forward to seeing him in heaven when my time comes. May we all learn by his life and example and lead our lives accordingly. RIP you are deeply missed your friend always and forever.

“ I knew Jim since I was a child. His mom and dad were my God Parents. He was always full of life and had a positive outlook, until his later years, when he was in such poor health. Still, he found much happiness with his "son" Puna. RIP Jimmie! My condolences to his brother Fred. I hope someone has taken Puna into their home and can offer him the love Jim would have wanted for him.

“ Jim and I Became friends in junior high,when he won the spelling been contest for our class and I was the runner up. He also was the person who sat up the movie projector when it was needed in whatever class and he was really proud of that this was junior high so he was the big man on campus.😎
We talked through text and Emails over the years and I was sadden to hear of his passing.
Rest in peace Jim.

“ Jim graciously shared many family memories with me while I was writing my book, A Killing in Capone's Playground. Having found out that he was the Godson of Mary Emma Moulds, I was so excited to hear the stories of her and her Uncle Charles Skelly, who the book centers on. He sent me personal photos and verified much of the information I had collected. He continued to support me and the book well after it had been published! He was truly an Angel with a special gift to share. Jim will never be forgotten and I only hope he knew how loved and appreciated he really was!!

“ The first time I met Jim was at Shadowland. My girlfriend and I took a Greyhound bus from Chicago to see The Five Empees play. He introduced himself to us and showed us around. We remained friends through the years. He used to pick us up from the bus station and drive us around Michigan. He was such a sweet and thoughtful guy. We shared the same love of dogs and always traded pictures of our babies. All he talked about was how much he loved Puna and how lucky he was to have him.

Jim will be greatly missed.

Sincerely.
