“ Jim was one hell of a man. I consider myself very blessed to have known him. His O' so polite directness was perfectly balanced with that huge heart of his. I always admired his straight forward no B.S. attitude and thoroughly enjoyed when he called me out on mine. Some of my favorite conversations with him were when he was all riled up for some reason or another and his spirited feistiness was at its all time high.... those were some of my favorite conversations with him. No matter how brief or lengthy the calls were depending on what he was helping me with a big smile and real laugh were always a guarantee at some point during. I will miss him dearly... Thank you Jim for all that you taught me, for every kind word, and for helping me through every "AWW S**t" moment. My most sincere & heartfelt condolences
