“ To my Forever Friend Jim,
I cherish the time we spent in the Army Reserve; trips, PT, Family Day. You always took the time to mentor both NCOs and Officers. I will forever remember how you would put on your "No Nonsense" face when we were conducting Finance inspection. I've used that technique many times and think of you when I do. I remember how you always enjoyed Family Day and always made sure your NCOs were able to attend and you always brought Family. Jim, to me you were the epitome of a great soldier and Team Leader. Because of your mentorship I was able to achieve Master Sergeant (MSG). I will always remember you Leading the Way. Most important to me Jim, is that we never lost contact for over 30 years. Every holiday or important event you/I would touch base. I will miss that Jim. Jim thank you for your service, your mentorship, and your friendship.
Lord, I find solace in my faith that you have welcomed Jim into your eternal loving embrace. Rest in Peace Jim.
Death takes the body. God takes the soul. Our mind holds the memories. Our heart keeps the love. Our faith let's us know we will meet again (unk)

“ Our Dear Friend Jim. I often think about our times in the reserves together and it brings a smile to my face. Whether spending a weekend drill or our fun reserve trips, I always enjoyed learning from you. My first lesson from you in the 90s was "I like my coffee black". Your nickname "Dad" described the great person you are/were to others. Always gregarious. helpful and a terrific friend. Thank you for your service to our country in uniform, especially in Vietnam. Be with God and at peace with our Lord and Savior. Much love to you and your family. Richard
