“ I can't help but wonder if God wasn't tapping me on the shoulder to "friend" you on facebook. I'm so sorry for your loss, Linda. I don't know how you're feeling, but I do know that with faith you will make it through. Talk about the happy times and keep those memories alive! I'm looking forward to reconnecting with my wonderful friend!

“ Jim, I will miss your salutation of "wuenn with Jim". You fought a good race with faith; however, Jesus wanted you before you could bear the good fruits. You always honored my Marine Corps, and I appreciate that very much; once a Marine always a Marine! WE ALWAYS ENDED EACH CONVERSATION WITH I LOVE YOU. Finally, you called both Linda and I to inform us of your renewed spirit. I am very proud of you; however, your body just gave out. Have fun in heaven and thank you for letting me know that you are O.K. I hope you initiated a good chuckle from heaven as I had blown the air horn at your %$^&. haha! Enjoy the total peace and see you up there.

“ God chose to take my husband home at the young age of 53.very un-expected. I love you husband so much and so many things left unsaid. My heart is heart is hurting so badly that I can not even form into words. I will miss him the rest of my life and I will always keep him near to my heart. Way too many things left we were to do together. I know he is at peace with his Mom, dad, uncle and all the rest of his family and friends that went before him. Tee it up Jim with Floyd and Heals my dear love.

“ Linda, I am so sorry to hear of Jim's passing. My heart hurts for you. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. I recognize that picture of Jim - it was from a very happy time for you two - going to Vegas with the Healey's. I remember the first time I met him. He was so funny I don't think I stopped laughing all night! And Rick said he was one of the best golfers in the area. Remember when they went to Kentucky and there was a very bad storm down there and you and I talked on the phone for a very long time cuz we couldn't reach them because of the bad weather. Cherish and hold onto the good memories you two had together - I know there were many. My heartfelt condolences to you and your family and to Jim's brother. If you need me I am here for you.

“Jim and I worked together at U.S. Steel, 84" Hot Strip Mill Electronics Shop. The group took a few road trips to see the Chicago White Socks play and west to Iowa and the gambling boats on the Mississippi River. Good times and good people. Those were the good old days. I offer my condolence to Jim's family.
