“ Janice I miss you so much that it hu to even think about you anymore. It was an honor to help take care of you. The times I would slip into your hospital bed and sleep with you and you would always say let's hold hands and we did. It's a memory that I will always have. It may sound strange but I was happy that I was the one to see you take your last breath. Not because I wanted you to go ,but I knew now you would be out of all the pain that you had . I knew that you would be going to a place that would heal you so that you would never have pain again never have to put up with the hurtfulness of this world. Janice I really hope that I can do what I promised you and that was to make people more aware of what dementia people go through. Janice I'm sorry for anything I ever did to hurt you. But now I'm thankful that your at peace and with the Lord. It really would be nice if you could sneak back down for just a moment to tell me how awesome it was to see Jesus face-to-face. I love you I always will and I miss you and I always will. With all my Love Kay

“ There are no words, just an empty void. Janice your presence will truly be missed. Gatherings will not be the same without you. I'm sure Jacob, Cayla, and Colby will miss you coming over playing games and having some good laughs. Chico is going to miss his Gamma coming over and bringing him treats. He loved his Gamma as the rest of did too. To Andre and Tony my heart breaks for you on your loss. It isn't easy, but will get better with time. Rest in peace Janice, until we meet again.

“ 2nd Corinthians tells us that to be absent from this body is to be present with the LORD. We can all take comfort in knowing that Janice is with the LORD and at peace and we will see her again. Prayers to you all. And thank you so much for including me in her obituary. That meant so much to me.

*I love you Mama. I'll treasure the short time I got to spend with you, each and every day. You're with our Lord, so you have no worries, and no tasks to finish. Rest in Peace. I will take good care of Anthony and love him eternally. You'll always be in my heart.
XOXOXO Michelle
When you meet my mom, give her a hug from me and tell her, that I'm happy.
Love you mama.*
