“ Janice and I were grade school friends at Sts. Peter & Paul. She was always fun and a joy to be around. We spent some fun times in our pre-teen years talking about boys and other important matters. God bless you, Janice, and may the angels welcome you home.

I met Aunt Jan after I married Steven. She welcomed me just like I had been in the family for years. Unfortunately I only saw her when there was a funeral in the family. She was witty, funny and a very special lady. I will miss her very much. Uncle Alan, I am so very sorry for your loss.
