“ Our deepest and most sincere condolences to the Smith family on their loss. For many years we considered Jason a member of our family. He graced us with so many wonderful memories. Jason gave us so many laughs, and yet was the most compassionate young man that it has been our pleasure to know. We didn't see him as often after the kids graduated. However, when we did see him we were always happy to see how well he was doing. We will miss him terribly. God be with you. Our love to you, Jason, may you rest in peace.

“ I offer my condolences to the family of Jason Smith. I live upstairs from him , and he was always so wonderful and looked out for my boys. He even gave my 9 year old a bike that I still have sitting on the aide of the house because I promised to paint it. He was more of a blessing to my boys than he will ever know. My 9 year old suffers from a mood disorder and the time that Jason spent with him, helped him dramatically. The family will continue to be in my prayers

“ I am so glad I was able to see you and hug you just a few short months ago. I will always hold close to my heart the "I love you Aunt Jean" messages you would post to my Facebook site. You had the smile that could light a thousand candles. In your short lifetime I never heard you utter one mean or harsh word to anyone. I know God must be holding you in the palm of his hand. Go sing with the angels Sweet Boy. You will remain forever in my heart my beloved nephew. Take my love with you to that beautiful sunny place. Your loving aunt Jean...

“ You touched so many lives during your short time with us; taken far too soon! Everyone mentions your wonderful smile, caring demeanor, which we also fondly remember. We see that little blonde haired, angel faced boy running around your yard, happy and carefree. Butch, Faith, Chris, & Rachel, we are keeping you close in prayer, for strength and comfort as you struggle through the journey of grief. Praying for the peace only God can give. He knows your pain; He sent His only son Jesus to suffer the cross for us. He is now holding your son in His loving arms, that are also outstretched to all of you, to give His comfort, peace, and love.

“ Jason aka Beaver, it was a pleasure knowing you. If it wasn't for Veolia environmental services, I would have never met you. I will always have the memory of us getting off at 5am and I was taking you home & we hit them 2 raccoons, & I brought 1 home with me cause it was stuck on the muffler, lol! U had such an outgoing personality and sense of humor that even when I was in a bad mood u always knew how to make me laugh! My prayers are with you and your family during this difficult time. Until we meet again bro, MAY YOUR SOUL REST IN PARADISE!!

“ Mr and Mrs Smith you raised a true gentleman, who had a beautiful heart. Whenever I would see him he always had a genuine smile. He would send me happy mothers day, merry Christmas texts, and we were just the landlords. Good natured compassionate people are so rare these days. I'm so sorry he was taken away .

“ Jason and I have known each other for a long time.. first we met on myspace(lol) and then we arranged to meet at warped tour. It took us about an hour to find each other and I'm so glad we didn't give up. There are so many amazing memories I have with him. From helping out a car wash I was involved in to him locking his keys in the car and it took us maybe 2 hours to get them out from the rusted out hole in the floor of his drivers side. We went to the city together once with his friends and even though it was cold, he made it fun. One night we hung out, we played beer pong and then spent the night together in a room that his friend's grandma died in(so he said) and he didn't tell me until the morning, when he brought me waffles in bed. He was the an incredible man and no one will ever forget him. I wish we could've hung out one more time before he left us, but all of the memories I have with him will never leave me. He will NEVER be forgotten. He was loved by many and wasn't afraid to be himself. I wouldn't say it to his face, but I truely loved him.

“ we remember moving next door 15 years ago, and were so pleased to have 3 children almost the same age as ours. The memories of pool, motorcycles, all the laughter and the path that was wore between the houses and especially Jason capturing many moments with a camcorder, which we will always cherish. The true pleasure was seeing Jason grow into a fine your man, always with a smile, a kind word and a gentle demeanor. We will all miss you!

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
