“ Dear Carol & Lora,

My heart has been heavy since hearing of Jeff ' s passing. He was a dear loyal friend to my sons. They loved him and will surely miss him.

I'm sorry for the grief you must bear.

Treasure your memories of Jeff.

May God bless you and comfort you both.

“ So sorry for your loss. We had not seen Jeff in quite a few years. He was good friends with my husband and was at our wedding. Every time we would drive by the house on 3rd Street we would both say “ I wonder what Jeff is up too” so we did think of him often. Rest In Peace Jeff. Rick, Julie, Matt and Hunter Rans

“ When Chad and I were married Jeff was his best man and one of our very best friends. I remember the summer of '85 at the old house,the boys working on cars in the garage,us all acting like fools,just being kids. The boys locked Lisa and I up in the old Paddy wagon in the back for what seemed like hours and when we got out we chased them around the yard...we we're so mad!
Jeff was the sweetest,we loved him and he will be greatly missed.
We are so sorry for your lost.

“ Some of my fondest memories have taken place in Gram's living room. Birthdays and holidays...whatever the occasion you were there. Always on the sidelines watching me grow into who I am today. Your time on Earth may be done but you will live in my heart for eternity. You have earned your wings and I have gained another guardian angel. The most important thing is that you are at peace with your baby boy <3

Please give Pop a big bear hug for me and tell him his baby misses him.

You will be forever missed. I love you always
